Daily Lectionary

A Bible-in-a-Year reading plan
as printed in Lutheran Worship

This outline is a devotional reading plan that covers the entire Sacred Scriptures each year. The selections are based on ancient models and are generally in harmony with the liturgical church year. The average reading is three chapters daily. A seasonal canticle is assigned for each month and is scheduled to replace the psalm on the first and last days of the month. All of the psalms are read twice a year.

The lectionary is in accordance with Martin Luther's suggestions: "But let the entire Psalter, divided in parts, remain in use; and the entire Scriptures, divided into lections, let this be preserved in the ears of the church." Also: "After that another book should be selected, and so on, until the entire Bible has been read through, and where one does not understand it, pass that by and glorify God."

Prayer for the fruitful reading of Scripture:

Lord Jesus Christ, You have commanded us to search the Scriptures and promised that in them You give us faith and life everlasting. You alone are worthy to open and break the sevenfold seals of this Book. Open now my eyes to behold the wonders of Your scriptures. From heaven above, pour out Your Holy Spirit on me, and from Your throne of glory send Him to be with me, to work in me so that I may learn to know what is well pleasing to You; to do all my labor in Your name, for Your glory; and to fill my heart with true faith, love, hope, humility, long-suffering, fear, and blessedness in the Lord. Amen.
